Roger Williams University and Roger Williams University School of Law

ar to the next) for up to a period of threwhich may be expended at the discretion of the PI&oPIs or PD&oPDs, consistent with University energy and the University energy and the University energy and the University energy and the University energy energy and the University energy en and administration (e.g. multiple students working with multiple faculty), the indirect portion of the grant will be allocated to the applicable Dean of the School.

2) Dean's Research and Program Support Fund

20%

A "Dean's Research and Program Fund" will be established for each school and used to promote